5.1 Approximate number of people expected to be actively involved in the development of this project: 20
5.2 Scope: This International Standard provides guidance for organizations in the application of ISO 9001:2015 to the acquisition, supply, development, operation, and maintenance of computer software and related support services. It does not add to or otherwise change the requirements of ISO 9001:2015.

The guidelines provided in this International Standard are not intended to be used as assessment criteria in quality management system registration/certification.
5.3 Is the completion of this standard dependent upon the completion of another standard: No
5.4 Purpose: This document will not include a purpose clause.
5.5 Need for the Project: The standard assists in the application of ISO 9001 quality management standards to enterprises concerned with software. Guidance based on current IEEE software engineering standards is given for applicable 9001 clauses. The standard needs to be updated due to major revisions in its primary source of guidance, ISO/IEC/IEEE 12207:2017, Systems and software engineering: software life cycle processes, which is extensively referenced in ISO/IEC/IEEE 90003.
5.6 Stakeholders for the Standard: Developers, maintainers and managers of software enterprises as well as practitioners of quality management.

8.1 Additional Explanatory Notes: 7.2: This project is a joint development under the Partner Standards Development Organization (PSDO) agreement between the IEEE and ISO/IEC JTC 1. IEEE previously adopted the original version of ISO/IEC 90003, but for this revision will engage in joint development with ISO/IEC JTC 1/SC7/WG7.

2.1 The title is being changed (to reflect ISO/IEC/IEEE), since it is no longer an IEEE adoption, but a joint development.

4.2 The initial revision draft is currently being balloted in SC7; the standard is expected to be ready for IEEE ballot within a few months after PAR approval.
